

Maine Earth Institute Membership

The Maine Earth Institute (MEI) shares a mission with the National Network of Earth Institutes:

“Motivating individuals to examine and transform their personal values and habits, to accept responsibility for the earth, and to act on that commitment.”

Financial support for the Maine Earth Institute’s outreach comes from course participants who recognize the unique need filled by the Maine Earth Institute courses and wish to see the work continue and spread.

If you would like to support this outreach, or would like additional information about how to become a mentor or volunteer, please complete and return this membership form.
